

Online Professional Learning Center for Teachers

How does it work?

Registration and access is easy.

Users fill out their demographic information, receive an automated email confirming their registration, and are into the program within seconds.

Walk the talk: Be a leading example for districts everywhere by using of 21st century skills and multimedia for real world applications.

Customize teacher learning.

Flexible and convenient—teachers go at their own pace and can spend more time on topics of district focus.

Align your learning to your professional circumstances.

Built-in progress tacking and completion certificates allow for accountability and credit options.

